

The Young Sailor And Other Poems

Bathed In War's Perfume

BATHED in war's perfume--delicate flag!
(Should the days needing armies, needing fleets, come
O to hear you call the sailors and the soldiers! flag like beautiful woman!
O to hear the tramp, tramp, of a million answering men
they arm with joy!
O to see you leap and beckon from the tall masts of ships
O to see you peering down on the sailors on the decks!

Flag like the eyes of women.
